Election/Restriction

1. Applicant's election of the species shown in figures 18-21 in Paper No. 8 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 1-4 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 8.

Drawings

3. New corrected drawings are required in this application because the drawings of record are extremely burry and of bad quality. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3728

5. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Klebahn (5687491).

Klebahn shows a snowshoe comprising a closed loop frame (12) with decking (shown in figure 1), a boot platform (16), and suspension means (24 and 26) which keeps the boot at a toe down neutral position (figure 2, column 2 lines 59-61) as claimed.

6. Claims 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Faber (4720928).

Faber shows a snowshoe comprising a loop frame (18), decking (28, 30, and 32), a boot platform (12), and suspension cables (112) as claimed.

7. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gallay (5682688).

Gallay shows a snowshoe comprising a pair of bottom rails (3) which are curved toe to heel (shown in figure 1) as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gallay (5682688).

Gallay shows a snowshoe substantially as claimed except for the exact materials for the plastic of the snowshoe. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a polypropylene blend with low temperature impact modifiers, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

10. Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gallay (5682688) in view of Forrest (5517773).

Gallay shows a snowshoe substantially as claimed except for the exact use of metal for the rails. Forrest teaches using metal for rails (212, column 6 line 55) and plastic for the snowshoe (202) and also teaches forming apexes on the rail (at 226). It would have been obvious to use metal for the rail and to provide apexes on the rail as taught by Forrest in the snowshoe of Gallay to increase the strength and grip of the rails.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 8-10 and 16-18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
